Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them, let us use that standard dentifrice, SOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no canker affect the enamel, no species of decay infect the dental bone. If SOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES A. GARFIELD
OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
OF NEW YORK.

A Proclamation.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA.

In compliance with Section 33 of an Act of the Legislature, entitled "An Act Relating to Elections," approved March 12, 1873, I, JOHN H. KINKADEE, Governor of the State of Nevada, do hereby offer a reward of One Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of felony, in violation of any of the provisions of the above law. The above reward will be held till the expiration of the term of office of the Governor, and the amount paid out shall be the sum of One Thousand Dollars.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed. Done at Carson City this 1st day of October, A. D. 1900.

JOHN H. KINKADEE,
Governor of the State of Nevada.

JAMES BASCOCK, Secretary of State. Oct 1

SOME LEADING ISSUES.

The tactics of the Democrats, during the closing days of the campaign, have been very plain. Their object is to make all the noise possible over the forged Morey letter, and distract attention from the great issues of the contest. The Chinese question is not an issue. Both parties take the same stand respecting it. Both are pledged to correct the evil of Chinese immigration.

The maintenance of an honest and efficient Civil Service is one of the most important things to be considered at this time. The public business is now in the hands of an army of 100,000 honest, well-trained and capable men. Not a cent of the public money has been stolen during the present Administration. The election of Hancock means "a change." All these efficient, tried and trusty servants would be discharged. Their positions would be filled by a horde of greedy office-seekers, incompetent and untrustworthy, appointed for political services in accordance with the Democratic maxim that "to the victors belong the spoils."

Another important consideration for voters is the preservation of an honest, stable currency. The Republican party, after the most determined opposition from the Democrats in Congress, succeeded in restoring the currency of the country to a coin basis, and is pledged to specie payments. A Democratic triumph to-morrow would open the way to inflation and endless tinkering with the currency. The Democracy is pledged to the overthrow of the system of National banks, which has proved such a safeguard to the business community.

Voters should remember that the election of a Democratic President will bring about such changes in the Supreme Court as will result in the legalizing of countless rebel claims, amounting to hundreds of millions of dollars. Many of these claims are already on file in Washington, and all will be pressed for payment should the Democrats gain complete control of the Government.

The man who votes the Democratic ticket to-morrow will vote to uphold the doctrine of State Sovereignty, which continues to threaten the existence of the United States as a Nation, and which the war was fought to overcome. The Democratic party is wedded to the theory, and could not consistently oppose the secession of States and the consequent dissolution of the Republic, should serious occasion for quarrel again arise between the North and South. The theory of State Sovereignty is the great original dividing line between the Democratic and the Republican party. The Republicans maintain the supremacy of the National Government, and their motto has ever been "the Union."

These are a few of the main issues of the election. As regards the personal qualifications of the two candidates for President, there is only one fit for the office. Garfield has the character, the ability and the training to make him a better President than the country has ever had. Hancock is a soldier, deplorably ignorant of politics and totally inexperienced in legislation and the machinery of government. Nothing but a continued series of blunders could be expected from his Administration. An incompetent man in the White House is dangerous to the country. As well intrust the navigation of a great ocean steamship to a man who had never seen the sea, as to place Hancock in command of the Ship of State.

TARIFF RECORDS.

What the Platforms Say.

THE DEMOCRATIC.

At Cincinnati, June 6, 1896.

The time has come for the people of the United States to declare themselves in favor of free seas, and a progressive free trade throughout the world.

At Charleston and Baltimore in 1860.

We, the Democracy of the Union, in Convention assembled, hereby declare our affirmative of the resolutions unanimously adopted by the Democratic Convention at Cincinnati in the year 1896, believing that Democratic principles are unchangeable in their nature when applied to the same subject matters.

At New York in 1868.

A tariff for revenue upon foreign imports.

At St. Louis in 1876.

We denounce the present tariff as a masterpiece of injustice, inequality and false pretenses. We demand that all Custom House taxation shall be only for revenue.

At Cincinnati June 25, 1890.

A tariff for revenue only.

THE NATIONAL PARTY.

Horatio Seymour of New York is reported to have lately said: "I am sick of the word 'Nation.'" No wonder. He's a Democrat. The Democratic idea is that the Constitution is a compact or agreement between Sovereign States, which have linked themselves together in a confederacy, called the United States. The Republican idea is that this is a Nation, not a confederacy; that the Government is one of the people, not of delegates from Sovereign States; that while State rights must be respected, there is no such thing as State Sovereignty, and that the authority of the general Government is paramount. The Republicans assert the right of the Government to stretch forth its arm to protect the poorest and humblest of its citizens. The Democrats deny that the Government has any right to thus protect its citizens. They say: "You must not invade a Sovereign State with your marshals and your troops. The State will protect its own citizens. You have no right to interfere with our elections." That is the Democratic doctrine. And we know what the Democratic practice is. We know how Mississippi and Arkansas protect citizens at the polls. Everybody has heard of the Ku-Klux-Klan, the White Liners and tissue ballots. There is a broad distinction between the parties that voters must choose between to-morrow: Republicanism is National, Democracy sectional; Republicanism would make any sacrifice for the preservation of the Union, Democracy would see the Union split asunder rather than concede Sovereignty to the Nation. A Republican is proud of his birth in the United States, under the Stars and Stripes; a Democrat rejoices that he was born in "Old Virginia," or some other State, and the only men who ever fired upon, tore down or trampled under foot the Stars and Stripes were Democrats.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER.

All patriotic Americans revere the memory of Charles Sumner, who devoted his lofty talents to the service of his country. He took his stand on principle and never consented to a compromise. It was just after his famous speech on "The Crime Against Kansas" had been delivered that Preston S. Brooks approached him from behind and struck him down with his murderous cane, on the floor of the Senate chamber. That blow destroyed Sumner's health, caused years of agony, and finally his death. The cowardly assassin, Brooks, was a member of Congress, and immediately after the assault a resolution was introduced in the House to expel him. William H. English, of Indiana, now the Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency, voted against that resolution.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.

A prominent Democrat informs us that three thousand dollars will be thrown into Reno to-morrow after 10 o'clock to buy votes. Let every Republican look out for these rascals who try to bribe voters and we will get some of them in the penitentiary. Read the Governor's proclamation.

WANTED.

Fifty of our best business men on guard to-morrow, to see that no illegal votes are cast. Let honest Republicans and honest Democrats make an endeavor to protect the purity of the ballot-box. Give one day to your country, and you will not regret it.

THE REPUBLICAN.

At Chicago in 1860.

While providing revenue for the support of the general government by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such an adjustment of these imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country.

At Philadelphia in 1872.

The revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties upon imports, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

At Cincinnati in 1876.

The revenue necessary for current expenditures and the obligations of the public debt must be largely derived from duties upon imports, which, so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interests of American labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

At Chicago in 1880.

We affirm the belief avowed in 1876 that the duties levied for the purpose of revenue should be so adjusted as to favor American labor.

CAN THEY BE TRUSTED?

Can the Democratic party be trusted to collect the revenue of this country? Let us look at a few facts. During the last four years there have been seized and destroyed in the South 3,974 illicit distilleries. In trying to collect internal revenue taxes in the South, in the same period, 25 revenue officers have been killed, 55 wounded, and 7,084 Democrats arrested. There is not a single revenue officer to-day, in the South, who is not furnished by his department, as a necessary part of his outfit, with a breech-loading rifle and a pair of pistols. This is the way things are now in the South.

It is well known that the Democrats, especially in the South, object on general principles to paying internal revenue taxes. The position of the Southern States is that the general Government has no business to invade with its officers a Sovereign State for the purpose of levying duties on tobacco and whiskey. The last Democratic Convention in Alabama passed a resolution that no man should be tried in a Federal Court for a violation of the revenue laws. What does that mean? It means that he should be tried in a State Court, which would let him go free every time. It means that the Southern people are in sympathy with the "moonshiners."

Now will the tax-payers of the North and West trust the Democratic party to collect the revenue?

A MEMORABLE CAMPAIGN.

We predict that the campaign of 1890 will be famous in the history of campaigns; voters will consider the course of the two parties in their conduct of the canvass. The Republican papers and speakers have talked about great questions of government and statesmanship, upon finance, the tariff, States' rights, etc. The worst thing they have said about the candidate for President was that a military life unfitted a man for the office of President, and that the Democrats themselves have said a thousand times. The Democratic party have advanced their ideas only to the edge of legitimate political discussion. Their time has been almost entirely occupied in spreading old disproved stories of corruption. They have attacked Garfield with a fury that would have become if he had been a boss Tweed or a Southern bull-dog, but being, as has been amply proven by witnesses of all parties, a high-minded and honorable man, who has rendered extraordinary services to his country, it only shows the means whereby they hope to get power. If Hancock and English had been Republican nominees they would have been vilified just the same.

IN THE INTEREST OF REFORM.

Decent Democrats ought to blush for the man Mr. Fair has sent into Washoe county to corrupt our people. A man who helped to break the Reno Savings Bank is going up and down the county making offers of money to Republican voters and leaders. He offers fifty or sixty dollars and raises his eye brows in surprise when men refuse such a lot of money. Detectives are on his track and he may hear from it.

THE CONTROL OF THE U. S. SENATE.

Let the Republicans remember that on Nevada depends the control of the next United States Senate. If we send a Democrat there is no hope for Republican control. Let us all stand in and beat Fair at the polls and then we will all stand in and beat Sharon in the Legislature. Dr. Dawson is pledged against Sharon. Do not scratch him.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

No thinking man believes any of the vile attacks upon the character of Garfield. Garfield corrupt! For many years he was chairman of the Congressional Committee on Appropriations, where his nod could take millions from one industry and give it to another, where his influence could have been sold for millions. And Garfield is as poor as a school teacher today! Everybody knows he's poor. His most slanderous enemies admit that. Garfield corrupt! Why, as Bob Ingersoll says, "the men who are today blackening his reputation are not fit to black his shoes."

A short time ago the GAZETTE contained an item respecting some rye raised in Genesee valley, Plumas county, from seed found in the crop of a wild goose. A specimen was sent to the Department of Agriculture at Washington. Commissioner LeDuc states that the grain is not rye, but a species of Polish wheat, whose cultivation is confined chiefly to California and Montana. The incident shows the important part which migratory birds play in distributing seeds over the earth.

The election of Garfield by a big majority to-morrow would be a lesson to the men who thought that slander and abuse of good and noble men were winning cards with the American voter. The Democrats seemed to think that the people were anxious to believe the candidates all thieves and would accept the merest shred of evidence as conclusive. To-morrow's vote will, we believe, teach such men a bitter lesson, but it will raise their estimate of the average American considerably.

The people cannot afford to trust the finances of this country to the Democratic party. We have an honest currency, a currency good as gold throughout the length and breadth of the land. Give the Democrats a chance to tinker with it, and they will inflate it a thousand millions, get it below par, pay off U. S. bonds with it, and injure the credit as well as dishonor the obligations of the Nation.

The Reveille received electrotypes of the Morey letter and threw them into the "hell-box." The Silver State also received them and runs them under the heading, "The alleged Garfield letter." It says editorially that it does not know whether it is genuine or not. The Virginia Chronicle, Eureka Sentinel and Elko Independent publishes it and pledge their reputation that it is genuine.

After such a canvass as the Democrats have made this far, only the father of lies can tell what schemes may mature in their fertile brains between now and to-morrow evening to deceive voters. It is safe to say that no new arguments can be advanced, no new villainies of Mr. Garfield's can be honorably shown up on the last day, but we counsel voters to be on their guard against jobs and trickery.

It is doubtless true that many Democrats fought for the Union in the war. Loyal Democrats were known as War Democrats at that time. But had it not been for Democrats—"Secesh" Democrats—there would have been no rebellion and no war. The Democratic party never was a loyal party. Who ever heard of a War Republican? A Republican is for the Union first, last and all the time.

"I am opposed to nigger domination," said General Hancock to General Grant. Abraham Lincoln once said, "No man can be elected President of this Republic who appeals negro to-day." The friends of the downtrodden and the oppressed will to-morrow endorse that observation of Lincoln's.

No law for the protection of the ballot box has been passed in any State of the Union during the past twenty years that was not passed by the Republican party. During the same period no such law has been defeated in any State that was not defeated by the opposition of Democrats.

Fair is reported to have said that he will spend three hundred thousand to be elected United States Senator. Let us show him that we can assert ourselves. It will be great glory to Nevada to beat these millionaires out of their boots.

Every Republican should go early to the polls to-morrow. It is important that every Republican vote be polled. Vote early, and see that your Republican friends do likewise.

Honest Democrats should rebuke fraud and corruption in their own party as well as in others. They should vote against the men who are buying and bribing.

The Republican nominees on the Omaha Legislative ticket announce in a published card that they are unpledged to any candidate for the U. S. Senatorship.

The man who votes for Garfield to-morrow will vote for free speech, an honest ballot, honest money and the protection of labor.

An observing correspondent writes us from San Francisco that the Republicans there are quietly confident of success to-morrow.

The Sun says "a candidate for President cannot write himself into office." Certainly Hancock is no exception to this rule.

Stand by the Nation and the flag to-morrow and cast your vote for Garfield and Arthur.

3 years in the army.
2 years in the Ohio Senate.
1 term in Congress.

Let the Democrats see to-morrow that Republicans are not for sale.

The Famous Opera Singers.

Annie Louise Carey and Clara Louise Kellogg are beyond question the most famous opera singers of modern times. In fact they have been universally acknowledged to be the leaders of their profession, as well as ladies of large experience and particularly good taste. They have probably traveled more extensively than any ladies on this stage, and as a consequence have had excellent opportunities of judging of the merits of different countries and their productions. It is certainly a very great credit to California and the balmy semi-tropical climate of the Pacific, to have had them pronounce Slaven's Yosemite Colosseum by far the best they have ever used in any country. BORN.

THOMPSON.—In Reno, November 1st, to the wife of J. M. Thompson, a daughter.

A Love Feast.

For several days parties were out notifying certain Democrats to be at the Saturday evening meeting of the Hancock Club, as there was particular business to be done. When the doors were opened, two men guarded it to see that only the proper persons went in. After about forty had been admitted the meeting was opened. No attention was paid to the GAZETTE's photograph, which stood in a corner taking down every word. Hon. L. J. Flint presided and Hon. J. C. Hagerman was principal spokesman. He opened his remarks by saying that the gentlemen present represented the flower of the Democratic party (north) and that they had been selected by the Central Committee as workers on election day. He said that the Committee was embarrassed financially, but that they could pay five dollars to each man for his services. This proposition seemed to fall flat. It did not arouse the enthusiasm that was expected. The chairman and spokesman then held a whispered consultation with the Hon. L. P. Drexler, who sat over in the corner near the photograph. The announcement was then made that an additional five dollars would be paid in case the Legislative ticket was successful. All who were willing to work were requested to say so. Some said they did not want pay; others said they were willing to work for nothing and give five dollars besides. Mr. Cooke moved that the roll be called and each respond if he was willing to work for the Democratic ticket on the above conditions. When George Hutton's name was called he said "no." After some sparring the meeting adjourned amid much disgust at such an offer.

Hallow-ean and All Saints.

Hallow-ean was celebrated last evening in the usual way. Some mischievous boys went about the town barricading the sidewalks with dry goods boxes, unhooking gates and hanging them in trees, etc. This morning, in defiance of the proprieties, the painted Indian maiden who is supposed to lure customers to Myers' cigar store, was found standing on her head in the street, with her legs pointing to the zenith. It is probable that gardens on the outskirts of the town were despoiled of cabbages during the night, as cabbage is considered legitimate plunder in some sections on hallow-ean, or cabbage night. This being All Saints' Day there was service in the Episcopal Church this morning, and the young ladies of the Seminary were allowed a half holiday to enable them to attend church.

Killed by the Cars.

Three tramps got on a freight train last night somewhere east of Wadsworth. The train men put them off several times, the tramps saying they were bound to go to Wadsworth. While the train was doubling the Goose Neck, a heavy grade, a few miles east of Wadsworth, one of the tramps, a young man about twenty years old, fell from the cars and was run over and killed. The remains were taken to Wadsworth and Coroner Jones went down this morning to hold an inquest. He was told that the deceased's Christian name was Frank, and that he came from Redding, Cal.

Not a Case of Robbery.

J. N. Barlow informs the GAZETTE that the money, and the certificate of deposit for $200, which Park Sherman of Reno lost at Washoe city, were found by Master Willie Noyes in a woodpile, against which Mr. Sherman's nose probably came to grief. The money and the certificate were returned by Mr. Barlow to the owner. The finder was generously rewarded by Mr. Sherman.

Athletic Club.

On account of the political excitement the monthly meeting of the Athletic Club will be postponed until Friday night. There will be no further exercises until that time. A full attendance is requested.

JOTTINGS.

Vote straight.
Tuscarora is assessed 15 cents.
Read every name on your ticket.
"Becher" will please bring back the GAZETTE sign.
No names have been stricken from the registry list since it closed, and no challenges have been made.
The Democrats will be in the field to-morrow with plenty of money. Show them that Republicans are not for sale.
The Artesian well that C. A. Lee is sinking at Franktown is down forty feet and has encountered rock. It will be bored deeper.
The west-bound overland express was ten hours late last night and took the place of the lightning this morning. A special train was dispatched from Reno to San Francisco last evening.
J. C. Hagerman has a fine pair of platform scales in his new store. The platform is level with the floor, so that heavy goods can be wheeled directly on it. The scales will weigh as high as 3,700 pounds.
The returns from the election will come in slowly and many persons will remain on the streets until a late hour to-morrow evening to learn the news. Should the night be cold, a suit of warm underclothing and a comfortable overcoat, from the White House, would prevent a chill and a subsequent fit of sickness.

Personals.

Edward Curtis, of San Francisco, is visiting Reno.
Richard Queen is on his way home from the East and may arrive to-night.
J. C. Stubbs, General Freight Agent of the C. P. R. R., went west this morning.
Mrs. Hessel, of Bodie, nee Lady Hoole, is visiting Reno, and is a guest of Miss Grippen.
Martin, the man ill with varioloid, at the County Hospital, continues seriously ill.
Mrs. Jos. Beemer and her three children were drowned in Lake Michigan on the 23d ult. through the wrecking of the steamer Alpena. She was a sister-in-law to S. Beemer, of Reno.

Glendale School Report.

The following is the report of the Glendale school for the month of October: Melissa Blasdell, 96; Emma Dean, 78; Abbie Denning, 98; Mary Klippe, 95; Mary Mellow, 98; Pearly Steele, 89; Pinky Steele, 100; Sarah Steele, 88; Vesta Rice, 100; John Klippe, 94; Eddie Mellow, 84; Bertie Sessions, 82; Louis Sessions, 88; James Steele, 93; James Stephens, 100; Willie Williams, 98; Grant Rice, 97.
I did not attempt to mark closely, particularly in the case of small pupils and those enrolled but a small part of the month.

H. S. Townsend, Teacher.

Roll of Honor.

Roll of Honor in North Truckee school for the month ending Oct. 29: Fannie Johnson, 93; Bessie Gault, 99; Josie Gault, 96; Emma Ross, 96; Charlie Bryant, 97; Johnnie Gault, 94; Jimmie Gault, 98; Edgar Jaquish, 94; Robert Lakin, 90; Joseph Lakin, 94; Charlie Ross, 99; Elwood Jaquish, 90; Neither absent nor tardy, Charlie Bryant.
MINNIE B. GIBBS, Teacher.

A Card.

In reference to a certain slander that has been put in circulation in this county with the intention to injure either one or the other of the undersigned, we desire to say that neither of us is responsible for its origin or dissemination. We are personal friends, and both emphatically deny that the story has any foundation whatever.
H. S. OGBURN.
N. W. ROFF.

No Drinking To-morrow.

The law requires that no person shall sell, give away or furnish any spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wines, on the day of any general election. Any violation of the law is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from $100 to $1,000 or by imprisonment for from one month to six months. The saloons will therefore be closed all day to-morrow.

Republican Meeting.

The Republicans will hold the final meeting of the campaign this evening. Speeches will be delivered by Messrs. Boardman, Cain, Julien, Fulton and others. A general turn-out is expected.

The Polls.

The polls will be open to-morrow in all the election precincts from eight A. M. till six P. M. The polling place in this precinct will be the Justice's Court room. The entrance will be through the side door.

Look Well to Your Tickets.

Voters should carefully scrutinize their tickets to-morrow. There are a number of crooked tickets in the field. Examine each name carefully.

Slaven's Cherry Tooth Paste.

An aromatic combination for preservation of the Teeth and Gums. It is far superior to any preparation of its kind in the market. In large handsome tin pots, price 50 cents. For sale by Ogburn & Sherman.

Isaac Fredrick is offering his stock at very low prices, because of the dull times.

For Fine Imported Havana Cigars, "Flor de Maria" and "La Esra Pina," go to the Wine House.
Davidson, the Jeweler, is a good one.

BY TELEGRAPH.

A Great Democratic Journal Declares the Morey Letter Spurious.
New York, Oct. 29.
The Sun says editorially, under the head of "Not Fair." There is some degree of honesty due from all men to all other men at all times and under all circumstances, and in reference to the letter, the authorship of which is attributed to Garfield, but denied by him, there is some peculiar spelling. Thus the plural of company is spelled "companies," instead of "companies." It seems to us that some other misspelling corresponding with this in Garfield's handwriting should be found before any person can be justified in continuing to circulate this letter as his. Garfield writes a great many letters, and if that method is peculiar to him his other specimens can easily be obtained, but until they are the letter may be safely considered spurious. After persistently denouncing for four years the obtaining power by the Republicans through means of fraud, we have no desire to see it wrested from them by forgery. If we must choose between honesty and office we prefer honesty.

The Trial of Philip.

New York, Nov. 1.
In the examination of Philip to-day the defense called to the stand H. L. Morey.
He testified: I live in Lawrence, Mass., and was born in Lowell. I am a common laborer. Entered the army in '61, and remained until '65. Here is my discharge.
I know Henry L. Morey; he is my uncle. He lived in New Hampshire in Fisherville, for some years. He afterwards traveled for a commercial house in Philadelphia. I then lost track of him for three years, as I was in South America. On my return I saw him in the fall of '77 and spring of '78. I went to Lynn to see my step-mother and met him. I met him there both times, between February and March, '79. I was in Lynn getting papers signed for my pension which I lost by not being present at the biennial examination. I went with him to the City Hall. I have seen Henry L. Morey write and know his handwriting. The signature in the register of the Kirtland House, of Lynn, Mass., shown me, is the signature of Henry L. Morey, as late as February 29, '79. I also find his signature here under date of October 17, '79. It reads, "H. L. Morey, Lynn." Main street is the principal street in Lynn. My uncle in Lawrence, Mass., showed me a certificate in June, '79. I read it and handed it back to him. The witness further said that the statement published over his name was not as he gave it, and that he had been offered $100 not to appear.

MORRY A MYTH.

G. D. Adams, the postmaster of Lynn, Mass., called by the prosecution, said he knew of no H. L. Morey in that town, nor could he find out whether such a person had ever lived there.
An Outside View of the Prospect in Nevada.
New York, Nov. 1.
A San Francisco correspondent of the Herald says: The fight is very active in Nevada, seemingly in favor of Fair for Senator. There is less reason now than when I last telegraphed to think that the Republican electors will be elected. The Democrats are well organized, active, and very aggressive. Should Nevada's electoral vote go to Garfield, it will be largely due to the influence of John W. Mackay, who is reported laboring to that end. Virginia City had a blazing anti-Chinese procession last night, and it is certain the Morey letter has had a great effect in the State. Republicans should not count on Nevada.

Change of Place.

Capt. T. B. Camp, formerly in the employ of D. A. Bender & Co., as manager of their Insurance Agency, is now engaged in the same capacity with Messrs. Paxton, Curtis & Co., at their Banking Office, corner 4th and Virginia streets, Reno, Nev., where he will be glad to see his former patrons, and all others who may wish to procure insurance or information on the subject. He will devote himself exclusively to insurance business, taking special pains in the careful and proper wording of policies. The company represented are among the oldest and strongest in the world. Risks accepted and made binding on the company, without reference to headquarters. Call and consult him before insuring elsewhere.
To the Public.
We desire to publicly deny the advertised statement of Mr. T. B. Camp that he was the former manager of the insurance business of D. A. Bender & Co. Mr. Camp was employed as Insurance Solicitor and was dismissed from that position some three months ago. Our facilities for the transaction of insurance business are more perfect than heretofore. We represent seventeen of the leading foreign and American companies. Parties wishing first-class insurance should apply at our office. Policies written and insurance made binding from date of application.
FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

And So Are FINE Clothing, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, OF PRICES.

If you go to the right place to get them, this is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. We do not boast when we say that we defy competition in prices in anything in our line. Besides this we have only one price. We have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at our establishment. Our stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything we have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on our shelves. We receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of our prices and examine our stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. We make a profit on everything we sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. We particularly call attention to our full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of our specialties. Orders from the country promptly attended to. Look out for the White Building with the Gold Sign.
